

Sherman Formally Accepts the Nomination

administration and insure the safety and well-being of the Republic.

Republican Platform.

Of the platform adopted by the convention you are fully advised and the principles therein enunciated will we are sure receive your hearty approval and we confidently expect and believe the candidates and the platform will receive the hearty endorsement of the American people.

The day broke clear and delightfully cool. Incoming trains during the morning brought throngs of sightseers from the middle and other sections of the State while the interurban trolleys from points as far west as Syracuse were crowded to the fullest capacity.

Among the early arrivals were national Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock, who came from Chicago accompanied by several members of his staff and State Chairman Timothy Woodruff.

KEPT BANNER UP.

After passing the nomination committee had to drive directly to death a flag, Bryan and Kern banner. The Democratic banner was affected to remove the banner for the day, but Mr. Sherman would not hear of it. "Half a block further up the street a high Sherman banner called out a cheer."

BURROWS' ADDRESS.

Senator Burrows in tendering the nomination to Mr. Sherman said:

"Mr. Sherman, though the proceedings of the late National Republican convention and the results of its deliberations

Democratic Opposition.

As thus amended the motion was passed the House and similar to the Senate. A bill was introduced in the House of Representatives of which it was determined. I have to say that while the Republicans in membership of that committee favor the passage of the measure as it came from the House, every Democratic committee man is opposed to it and under no circumstances could it have been passed through the Senate. It was believed now that the nomination of Bryan voters from exceeding their right of suffrage in quite as pernicious and as destructive of the government as the use of money in elections.

Election of Senators.

In the opinion of Mr. Bryan, it is clear that people do not approve of the present methods of electing the United States Senators. The constitution of the United States provides for their election by the legislatures of the States and the Senate is the body in which the States of such are represented. But there continuing into the argument touching the matter, it is sufficient to say that if many if not the majority of the States the people are permitted to elect in this manner the president and the Senate and the preference so expressed is necessarily potential with the legislature in exercising the constitutional right to make a choice of Senators.

Finally he asserts that the people do not rule by reason of the government of the House of Representatives, alleging that the rules of the House do not permit the people through their representatives to easily legislate. No statement can be found in the record of the old rules which is practically impossible to interpret public business. You, Mr. Sherman and myself have spoken together in the House of Representatives and have been held there day after day and night after night in an effort to transact the public business because the Democratic minority insisted upon the right with remaining in their seats to refrain from answering roll calls thereby destroying a quorum.

Rulings of Reed.

When Thomas B. Reed of Maine became speaker of the House he entered what he regarded to be his parliamentary right to count those present not voting as a part of the body to determine the question whether the quorum was in fact present. By this simple process he put out of our hands the most effective means of filibustering.

The rules adopted known as the "Reed rules" are enforced today and under those rules it is possible for the majority representing the people to transact the public business with promptness and dispatch. It hardly lies in the mouth of Mr. Bryan or the Democratic party to criticize these rules in view of the fact that upon acceptance of the Democratic majority in the House of Representatives and the election of Mr. Clark of Georgia as speaker these same rules were endorsed and adopted and enforced.

There are three things which Mr. Bryan mentions as evidence the people do not rule.

Lincoln Settled It.

Shall the people rule? This question was settled more than half a century ago when Abraham Lincoln stood by the scaffold at Gettysburg declaring the principle of self-government in power to continue the contest in behalf of popular government and against the rule of an armed minority that in the end their might be exterminated in this country by the people and for the people.

Still the people will be answered at the close of the contest of November next as evidenced by the triumphant election of the nominees of the Republican party for the offices of President and Vice-President of the United States.

Duties of Office.

As the constitution is pending off the Senate you will bring to the discharge of that exalted position a wide experience in public affairs and a thorough knowledge of parliamentary law which will enable you to conduct its proceedings with dignity and dispatch and sustain the high character of the greatest legislative body in the world.

While the ordinary duties incident to the office of vice-president are not numerous et circumstances may arise in the mutations of human affairs in which the position may become one of the highest concern.

The framers of the constitution with wisdom and foresight which characterizes their deliberations sought to provide for such contingencies as would arise in the course of time events and that end provided in the event of removal of the President from office or death or death resignation or incapacity to discharge the offices and duties of his office the same shall devolve upon the Vice-President.

Five times during the history of the country the Vice-President has been elected by the death of the incumbent. Five times has he Vice-President been called upon to discharge the duties of the President of the United States and in five instances his every disposition of Providence has provided him.

EULOGIZED SHERMAN.

The country is to be congratulated upon this evidence of tact on the part of men whom it will give an opportunity to vote for the coming election for the office of Vice-President to provide over the Senate and stand as his heir apparent to the Presidency as a good and true man who will be the best possible representative of the interests of the country in Congress.

Mr. Sherman is to be congratulated upon the simple expression of opinion and feeling by the people of his home. There are few if any in this world worth so much as the respect and esteem and affection of the community in which one has passed his life.

NO NOTICE OF TRANSFER OF GREEKS: CASES TO OAKLAND

District Attorney Brown Discusses Case

District Attorney Everett J. Brown this morning emphatically denied that he had received advices of the transfer of John and Peter Claudians to the jurisdiction of the Alameda county courts, but intimated that an action of this character might be expected at any time.

Brown stated that he would hold himself ready at all times to prosecute criminal cases which were brought to his attention in the proper manner. No complaint against the alleged dynamiters has been received at the office of the district attorney, and until charges are made Brown does not feel that their cases come under his jurisdiction.

"I have nothing whatever to say on the subject," said Brown, "though I may have very shortly. It appears from what we have all read in the newspapers that the officials in San Francisco have secured about all the information possible without changing the scene to Oakland, and naturally when this is done our office will probably have a large amount of work on the case. We are following the progress of events with the same interest which is given criminal cases in the offices of a public prosecutor."

$100,000 IN BONDS BEFORE VOTERS

Question of School Improvements in Fruitvale to Be Settled Saturday.

At a district meeting of the electors of the Fruitvale School District held July 18, 1907, the trustees were instructed by the electors to issue a call for an election for the purpose of voting $100,000 in bonds, the proceeds from the sale of the bonds to be applied to the purchase of three school sites and the erecting and equipping of three new school buildings. The bond election will be held Saturday, August 22, at the Fruitvale Avenue School house, Fruitvale avenue and Tillman street.

The present schools in the district are inadequate to take care of the fast increasing school population, between 300 and 400 children now going to school only half day.

It is proposed to build a school in the neighborhood of the West End District with 300 pupils, the Alameda school, a school in Elmhurst above Hopkins Street which will relieve the Boston Avenue school, and a school in the Tatham Terrace section west of Sausal Creek, which will relieve the Fruitvale Avenue school. A live vote is expected.

No one immune from kidney trouble, kidney trouble, the breakdown of the kidney, any kind of kidney or bladder trouble that is not beyond the reach of medicine. Sold by all druggists.

TO CONTEST WILL OF JOHN CENTER

Nieces and Nephews Object to Only Getting $8,000 Apiece.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—The will of John Center, disposing of $4,000,000, is to be contested by nieces and nephews of the dead millionaire. According to the will, each of the thirty-five nieces and nephews is to receive $30,000, excepting George Center, the supervisor, who is to get the balance, amounting to about $1,500,000.

It is alleged by the dissatisfied relatives that George used undue influence in persuading his uncle during his last illness. George lived with his uncle and, as the will was drawn in the last two weeks of the latter's life, it is represented that the millionaire did not have a free hand in disposing of his property.

WANT EQUAL SHARES.

All through his life John Center said that he would never make a will, the prospective contestants say. He mentioned this fact to Mrs. William Holbing, a niece, 2712 Folsom street, and to several other relatives. Those who are planning to make a contest for an equal division of the estate among all the relatives say that George Center drafted the will and that it was given to John to sign while he was on his death bed.

NIECE HEADS CONTEST.

The belligerent forces are being led by Mrs. George F. Valz, one of the nieces and wife of the secretary and treasurer of the National Brewing company. She, together with her son, Ed, and one of her cousins, has been engaged in an effort to enroll all the nieces and nephews in the present movement.

An effort was made to have Mrs. William Holbing put up the money to finance the contest, but she declined, because, as she says, she is already independent and will be more than satisfied to get the $80,000 that has been left to her.

2 WIVES APPEAR TO CLAIM ESTATE

Vacaville Merchant's Death Reveals Allegation That He Was Bigamist.

VACAVILLE, Aug. 18.—After bearing his name for many years and supposing herself to be his lawful wife and now his widow, Mrs. John Coulter of this place has apparently become convinced that her husband, once a prominent and respected business man, was a bigamist. Since his death she has received from a woman in Canada what appears to be conclusive proof that she is the legal widow of Coulter, and she and her children are entitled to his estate, said to be worth more than $10,000.

NO 2 HAS SYMPATHY.

Mrs. Coulter No. 2 agreed. It is said, to a division of the estate, she taking nothing, but requiring half of it for her children. Mrs. Coulter No. 1 is said to have first agreed to this, but her sons decided to demand for her and themselves the entire estate. The matter is about to be taken into court for settlement. Coulter claimed to have been divorced, but this claim cannot so far be substantiated. The affair has caused a sensation here, and the sympathy is with the Vacaville widow and her children.

HALF SISTER PLANS TO GET BUDD PROPERTY

Mysterious Mrs. du Maurier Known to Be Relative of Late Governor.

STOCKTON, Aug. 18.—Though the expected contest of the will of the late Governor James H. Budd did not take place when it was brought up in the Probate Court yesterday, it by no means indicated that the claimants of the estate had settled their differences. E. J. Livernash, a friend of Mrs. du Maurier, has been injected into the case and the probabilities are that he will make an attempt to have Mrs. Budd surrender the San Francisco property, over which the issue has arisen to Mrs. du Maurier today. This Mrs. Budd will refuse to do, and the expectations are that the estate will be decided up in litigation.

The proceedings in court yesterday were without any particular incident. Mrs. Inez A. Budd, widow of the late governor, was appointed executrix. She was represented by Attorney Frank C. Drew.

LIVERNASH IN CASE.
Livernash came to Stockton a week ago and interested himself in the case, hunting up records and papers and attempting to bring about a settlement. He visited Mrs. Budd's residence and there made arrangements to meet her in the law office of Attorney Drew in San Francisco. Mrs. Budd later declared that the only reason that she agreed to this meeting was because Livernash made his presence undesirable by threatening litigation and that she did so in order to make him leave the house. Since attention, however, will be paid to Livernash if he attempts to carry out the proposed plan of meeting at Drew's office and arranging matters.

WAS HALF SISTER.
The relationship between James H. Budd and Mrs. du Maurier was that of half brother and sister, she being the illegitimate daughter of the late governor's father. In order to conceal his father's wrong, Budd made overtures to Mrs. du Maurier, and during his lifetime the affair was kept secret.

Mrs. Budd was not aware of the relationship until after her husband's death, the information, it is said, being given her by Attorney Drew at the dying request of the late governor. Mrs. du Maurier was first married to a man named Ashby, who dying, left her a large fortune. She later married du Maurier, from whom she was soon divorced. There was one daughter as the result of the Ashby union. The child is constantly with her mother and it was erroneously hinted that she was the daughter of James H. Budd. Budd acted as attorney for Mrs. du Maurier and guarded her vast mining properties in Nevada.

"My father has for years been troubled with chronic diarrhoea, and I tried every means possible to effect a cure, without avail, writes John J. Zinck of Philipp, Wis. "My physician, Dr. Chapman, a C. Before taking this remedy he was a constant sufferer. He is now sound and well, and although sixty years old, can do as much work as a young man."

FORMER OAKLAND STAR RECEIVES BIG OVATION

Ferris Hartman, Singing at Princess, Welcomed by Crowd.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—"The Idol's Eye," Victor Herbert's tuneful opera, with Ferris Hartman in the role, made famous by Frank Daniels, was given a hearty reception at the Princess Theater in this city last night.

Hartman, who has recently terminated two seasons of uninterrupted popularity at Idora Park in Oakland, professed that he is still a strong favorite with the people of this city. His appearance on the stage was a signal for enthusiastic applause and shouting, while the ushers were kept busy handing bouquets and garlands to the smiling comedian.

Hartman was compelled to make three speeches during the course of the evening, each of which was greeted with shouts of laughter and approval.

He sang one topical song until the verses gave out, finally excusing himself by stating that the man who wrote it had gone home and had no telephone.

The rejuvenated Princess company, including many of the former favorites at Idora Park, gave a remarkably well balanced performance of the Herbert-Smith opera, showing the result of many weeks of hard work on the part of the managers and the cast. Miss Zoe Barret, in the role of Damayanti, shared honors with Hartman, while the two Walters—Cattell and De Leon—Wallace Brownlow, Arthur Cunningham, Evelyn Francis Kellogg, Sarah Edwards and Maybelle Baker, came in for their share of the generous applause. A successful week for the "Idol's Eye" is prophesied by all who saw last night's production.

YOUR HOME will be healthier when you keep bottled Schlitz. The barley is food—the hops are a tonic. And the drinking of liquids flushes the system of waste.

Every doctor knows that most people drink too little. On this account, their systems become clogged with waste.

There lies the main good of watering places. They induce the drinking of water.

That is one reason why the drinking of beer is good for you. It leads you to drink more liquid than you would drink without it. And that liquid is both a food and a tonic.

Heneyism Manifests Itself in Another Instance.

The manipulation of the Claudian cases by District Attorney Langdon and under the direction of his "control" illustrates again how Heneyism has come to be considered a legitimate process by the prosecuting officer of San Francisco. The Claudian brothers are in custody in that city, through confessions that they are responsible for the dynamiting of the Gallagher house in this city. One of them has been taken out of the jail where he is confined by Detective Burns—removed from the jurisdiction by another than an officer—brought to Oakland and put through the "sweating" process, being denied the presence or conference with his attorney.

That the men accused do not appear to be very worthy persons, whether they dynamited a house or not, is not germane. It is attempted to treat them in a way wholly unwarranted by law with the evident purpose of getting them to testify against others, just as testimony was wrung from the ex-supervisors by immunity contracts. The great desideratum in all these doings is to fix crime upon somebody who is hated by Rudolph Spreckels.

"Heneyism" is comprehended in various high-handed methods in the administration of justice. Its earlier manifestation was made in midnight conferences at the Presidio, where was arranged immunity for sixteen confessed criminals, that others whose guilt had hardly been charged might be ruined. The newspaper which worked with the Heney gang tried, condemned and executed these others out of hand. It is doing the same thing now, through cartoons and articles designed to connect Claudian with somebody which it terms "higher ups."

The people of San Francisco should be able to see the very grave danger from even a partial success of Heneyism. Heney practically took the ground, in the case where some of his detectives were up for contempt on a charge of tampering with veniremen, that illegal methods are permissible against those whom he "knows" to be guilty. But do the people of San Francisco want such a method fastened upon their machinery of justice? Do they want Heney, or any successor who may be as high-handed, to become a law unto themselves, to justify unlawful procedure by an expression of personal belief that the party proceeded against is guilty anyhow, and they might as well cut across lots in administering punishment?

The recent primary election tends to show that if the people of San Francisco ever felt this way they are getting over it. One can't talk on the subject with a representative man a minute without getting an opinion that is dynamic and hardly fit to print.

The people are tired no end; but they have voted Fuzzy upon themselves as Mayor, together with a Board of Supervisors whose members are as independent as sheep, and they will have to endure their affliction until a chance for relief comes through another election.

Supreme Court Reversed by Editor of a Law Publication.

A San Francisco newspaper which is making a science of promoting discord has a long and jubilant article upon the reversal by one Kerr, editor of "The Cyclopedic Penal Code of California," of the Supreme and Appellate courts of California.

The reversal is contained in the journal with the long name, and, seemingly, is accepted by the Spreckels paper as the last word on the subject.

So far as our discussion of the subject is concerned, it is not necessary to reproduce the contentions of Kerr. Nothing can result to the advantage of the citizen who accepts the rudimentary principle that the courts stand between social order and chaos by quoting from the same. But it is important that such considerable agencies for dissemination should persist in undermining this bulwark—should persist, through sheer spite and chagrin, in getting it into the heads of the unthinking that the courts are not to be trusted, and doing something to shake the faith even of those well grounded in better citizenship.

Such criticism of the courts, indulged in by individuals who are wont to look upon themselves as the first great cause, is taken for what it is worth; but persisted in by a journal that is impersonal, and that makes resounding pretense of guarding the people's interests, it is mischievous. It is understood perfectly well by those responsible for such criticism as that of the Call, how unpatriotic it is; how it undermines public faith in the institutions of the country; how it unsettles citizenship; but that consideration is resolutely put away. The sole impulse behind such course is the consideration of immediate enemies to be come with. The high courts interfered with some cross-lot court processes taken to cinch some Spreckels enemies, and hence the mob must be aroused against it.

This whole Spreckels crusade has been a strain on citizenship. It has confused the public understanding, and has distracted San Francisco to the extent of rendering its people indifferent as to whether the wretched grafters who plundered the city and were caught red-handed are punished or not. The public realizes that such criminals may at least be got rid of, but they begin to see that such methods are being attempted by those who find themselves in control, once fastened upon the city, will be a greater menace to their well-being than a grafting political boss is ever likely to be.

Mr. Sherman today accepted the nomination tendered him by the Republican party in the briefest speech on record. He stands for all the principles of Republicanism and insists the issue is the support and maintenance of the splendid administration of President Roosevelt.

The Bryan slogan of the "people rule" he dismisses significantly. He says the people of the United States have always ruled since the days of Abraham Lincoln. The Republican campaign is truly on now.

Mr. Chafin of the Prohibition party has made ninety-eight speeches without ever being notified of his nomination. He seems to be taking things for granted. Not only this record, but he has mixed in the Springfield riots, and if he did not capture any votes he got a brickbat alongside of his head. He is a busy man.

The peace in the Springfield riots which the Illinois State officials insisted upon yesterday, seems today to be the kind of peace you have to fight to maintain.

The people who lost their lives in auto trips through Death Valley should have waited for the airships, which now seem to be feasible.

In New Zealand the other day the visiting naval officers started the big geyser, that country's strong feature for tourists, with soap. There is a similarity between that and political campaigns in this country. It takes soap, although under the new regulations the brands must be selected.

One of the wings of the Wright flying machine was slightly fractured, but the tail feathers seem to be all right.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY BROWN
APPROVES MILEAGE CHARGES*Gives Opinion at Request of Supervisor Mitchell

The following correspondence is self-explanatory:

Office of the District Attorney,
Oakland, Cal., Aug. 1, 1908.
John Mitchell, Esq., Supervisor, 5th
Supervisory District, Hall of Records,
Oakland, Cal.

My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of the following letter from you:

Oakland, Aug. 1, 1908.

Everett J. Brown, District Attorney, Alameda County, Court House, Oakland, Cal.

My Dear Sir: I herewith request an opinion from you upon the following questions:

1. Am I entitled to charge mileage from my residence to the Board meetings at No. 655 Twelfth street, Oakland?

2. Am I entitled to collect mileage in inspecting and examining work done in other road districts within the County of Alameda, than in my own?

3. Am I entitled to mileage for visiting county institutions such as the conditions that exist there in order to see that the institution is being properly conducted?

I am writing this request for an opinion to you, Sir, on the ground that claims that I have to pay for mileage for these various subjects were questioned by a certain individual, and I further understand that, at the time said claims were questioned, that it was your opinion that my claims in this regard were legal charges against the county.

Very truly yours,
JOHN MITCHELL

HIS LEGAL OPINION.

In reply thereto I beg to advise you as follows:

First, In response to your first question I beg to advise you that Section 16 of the Act to amend the County Government Act, is in force and effect as to all supervisors elected before 1907, is as follows:

"Each supervisor, one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month, and mileage at ten cents per mile for each mile actually traveled in going to and from their residence to the county seat or in the performance of the duties required of them by law, or by virtue of their offices provided, extending generally to the several districts in which they have their offices, and shall be allowed for each month an amount that the total mileage shall not exceed one hundred dollars in any one month."

Attending sessions of the board is in performance of the duties required of you

MILEAGE IS PROPER.

Third, In answer to your third inquiry as to mileage for visiting such institutions as the county infirmary, I beg to advise you that the proper care and maintenance of such institutions is within the provisions of your duty as a member of the Board of Supervisors and that I do not believe that you could properly perform your duties as a member of the board without personally visiting and giving attention to the various institutions of the county. I, therefore, believe this to be a proper charge against the county.

In conclusion I beg to advise you that to the legality in form of the various items upon your mileage claim the law entails upon the district attorney the duty of approving them as to legality and if they are found to be legal he has been disbarred.

Respectfully submitted,
EVERETT J. BROWN,
District Attorney.

'THE EXPRESSMAN' IS HEADLINER AT THE BELL

Real Humor in Pylet—Bill This Week Full of Good Things.

WILLIAM H. ARMSTRONG.

Will H. Armstrong in "The Expressman" is a big hit. Not because he makes a big addition to the character of the moral newspaper, which is the "Expressman," but because he is a good addition to the room with his book. In the opening point he is the most desirable corner to set it in, but he is a comedian who indulges wit and humor with every turn he makes. He is a good addition to the room, and adds to the room's popularity.

His present nature is the gay cowboy, Will Rogers, and his routine in their interview exhibition of roping and fast-throwing, Buck Meeker, an Indian, and the cowboy, "Toddy," give a wild Western flavor to the performance and the Indian who whips at the close of the act starts the crowd with Armstrong.

His opening impossible feat of roping and swinging both pony and rider, each with a separate lasso, both swinging at the same time as horse and rider gallop before the audience, is incomparable.

The bright little comedian, Eddie Peterson, is a prime favorite on the new bill in a number of popular songs and his comedy.

Frank Russell and Co. present an unusual singing novelty act in "Around the World in a Month." The four singing girls are the most vocal of power and sweetnes, and their several renditions were heartily cheered.

FUNNY PLAYLET.

For real up-to-date gymnastic feats on the swinging rings the act of Foster and Foster is hard to beat, and is a most satisfactory acrobatic team and prominent in their repertoire of a number of difficult feats never before witnessed.

Charles J. Stine and Olive Evans in "Wanted" keep the house on the verge of hysterical laughter through the first act. The second act, the "Gangsters," is funny, and they, Lawyer Leguizam, with no clients and no money to stave off the pesky bill collectors, finally contrives to make both ends meet by the wonderful workings of his very fertile imagination and a matrimonial alliance with his first client, a gay young widow.

The new motion pictures are good.

The rooms and table were charming.

Many of the prominent members of the social 400 who have been making sojourns abroad are now turning their faces homeward. Among those who have enjoyed a European tour are Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Taft. They have spent much time in Paris, which, as every one knows, is the city of attraction to the feminine sex, for nowhere else can be found the dainty and intricate accessories to mid-lady's toilet.

Mr. Taft made the trip chiefly for business purposes, but for Mrs. Taft it was solely for pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Walker who have been touring the continent in their motor car, will soon wind their way homeward. They send most glowing accounts of their splendid trip and will have much to tell their friends of the wonderful country upon their return.

Covers were laid for Miss Betty Angus and Isel Stiley of San Francisco, Miss Mary Powell of Berkeley, Victoria Waltham and Betty Jones of Hayward, all of whom are to be married within a short time and the following who will be members of the bridal parties: Mary August of San Francisco; Gladys Mook, Harriet Mook, Grace Waltham, Hayward; Allen Allbright, Fruitvale; Elmeline Parsons, Hayward and Mrs. A. Brodeur, Oakland.

Dr. Dayton D. Davenport and Miss Greta Lewis will be married tomorrow at the home of the bride in Berkeley. Miss Lewis is an attractive brunnette and formerly made her home in Petaluma. She was educated in the Berkeley schools and is an artist of considerable ability. She is of a charming personality.

Dr. Davenport is a native of Stockton but is located in Newman, where he has a splendid practice. It is there that the young couple will make their home.

CHARMING LUNCHEON.

Mrs. R. F. Tisdale of Grove street gave the second of a charming series of luncheons last Friday. Mrs. Tisdale is a delightful hostess and has many friends on both sides of the bay.

The color scheme for the last affair was La France roses and pink sweet peas, making a pretty combination for the dining room, while Enchantress curtains and delicate ferns were used in the parlors.

Among the guests were Mrs. Martin Johnson and Mrs. Andrew Henry of San Francisco, Mrs. C. L. Hedemark, Miss Edith Hedemark and Miss E. McLean of Oakland and Mrs. A. E. McLean of Boston.

TOURISTS TAKE THEIR DEPARTURE

The tourists left San Francisco this morning on their return trip to Los Angeles. They will reach Del Monte to-night and remain over for a day in that place, visiting some of the main points of interest. On Thursday they will resume their journey, spending that night at Pase Robles. The tourist excursion enables the motorists to get great discounts on the rates at which they come to San Francisco through the valley, via Fresno, they are returning by the coast route and they have doubled out over the road from Gilroy to San Francisco. The third night's control will be Santa Barbara and on Saturday the tourists will be at home in Los Angeles. The cars will finish at the judges' stand of the Auto Vehicle Company on tenth and Main streets, and cups will be awarded to those with many hints that will tend to make a foreign tour one of pleasure and free from petty annoyances which generally attend the unswindling of foreign red tape. The Pioneer Automobile Company has a number of copies of the magazine, and will distribute them for their asking.

PRESENT CONDITION OF AUTOMOBILE INDUSTRY

After all the panicky talk of the past nine months and the hard times one still hears occasionally, it is interesting to note that the automobile industry is good, locally and nationally. In speaking of the situation in a recent interview Mr. J. H. Leland, general manager of the Cadillac Motor Company of Detroit, Mich., said: "It would appear as if we could hold a little expansion in our plant of all those possibilities who were downcast only a few months ago concerning the automobile industry."

"It is true that there was at that time some warrant in passing conditions for a slight feeling of skepticism as to the future—conditions, by the way, which were entirely artificial and due to disturbing causes which did not have their source in the industry itself."

"The situation has been so completely and overwhelmingly favorable, however, and the public is so interested and an immense amount of interest in the immediate future of the automobile, that it is actually a source of amusement to recall the pessimism of a year ago."

"You would naturally suppose that there was anything wrong with the industry, or wrong with the country at large, that the automobile would be first to experience a reaction on the part of the public. The extreme contrary is the greatest interest is being shown throughout Oakland and San Francisco in the service of the various new models. Orders are being placed about and in many cases the dealers have been unable as yet to fill all of their orders for 1908 cars. Mr. Marx, in speaking of the Renault in San Francisco, says: "Our cars are selling beyond our highest expectations, both here and in the East. Several French factories have in times past established agencies in San Francisco, but have been forced to leave the field because the public would not be attracted. In America, however, there is not that same lack of interest as in Europe."

"Mr. Johnson of the Howard Automobile Company states that the sales of the Buicks have averaged one a day since February, while nine of the 1909 models, all so far received, have been sold this month."

And so the list could be continued. The Stevens-Duryea, for instance, sold 1000 cars and models in July, which does not indicate that money is scarce, or business bad. The Maxwell cars are selling at the rate of one a day, and affairs seem to be very bright around all the salesrooms.

AUTO MAIL SERVICE FOR WASHINGTON

The government has this month installed an automobile mail service in Washington, D. C., and it is to be thoroughly tested for one year. It is entirely satisfactory. It is thought that the next congress will appropriate money for a similar system in other cities. Four Buick auto cars, each with a single cylinder, will be used with two shifts of drivers. Eight men and twelve horses will be saved under the new system.

NOTES.

Three 1909 Buick touring cars were unloaded on Monday.

E. E. Dodge of the Autocar Company left today on the China for Honolulu in the interests of the automobile business.

Al Hall, the local manufacturer of the Comet, the little racer which makes seventy miles an hour, will take one of his models to Santa Rosa for the races and departmentals in speed.

P. S. Lank of Berkeley has purchased a Maxwell runabout.

William Hickey has taken the Alameda agency for the Stevens-Duryea.

G. L. Judge and Roy Scott, San Francisco representatives of the Dragon Automobile Company, are at present in Fresno, where they also have a Dragon agency. There are thirty-four Dragons running in Fresno now.

Motor Talk, published in the interests of the Old Motor World, in its July issue has what is perhaps the best essay on touring abroad that has appeared. Shipments, passports, routes of travel are taken up in complete manner, together with many hints that will tend to make a foreign tour one of pleasure and free from petty annoyances which generally attend the unswindling of foreign red tape.

Howard L. Peaton, manager of the San Francisco branch, with Mrs. Peaton and Mrs. Casper of Fresno, accompanied the tourists to Del Monte.

W. E. Wilmot of Alameda returned recently from a trip to Los Angeles in his six-cylinder Stevens-Duryea.

J. B. Brokaw of Holly arrived from Los Angeles in his '07 D. Franklin. Mr. Brokaw spent four days on the road and reports an excellent trip, with no troubles of any kind en route.

L. C. Marsh has returned to his home in Woodland, driving a new Auburn touring car.

Good roads are probably responsible for the fact that Fresno is such an automobile town. It is stated on good authority that in proportion to the population more machines are owned there than in San Francisco. Owners of vineyards have found the runabout a great convenience in getting to work and going back and forth to town.

The Consolidated Motor Car Co. reports the sale of a '08 Royal Tourist to R. L. Colman of San Francisco. Mr. Levy, concession representative for the Matheson Company of Pennsylvania states that he expects to receive 1909 models within three weeks. In addition to the former Matheson concession, he will have a small shaft drive car, a four-cylinder five passenger, which will sell for $2,750.

The '09 Locomobile touring car will be as different from the 1908 car.

L. Moore, of the Herschell-Menney Trunk Company has bought a model H. five-cylinder, 40-hp. touring car.

G. W. Jennings of Alameda has started for Mendocino county with his Ford runabout.

John B. Shanks, formerly general sales and advertising manager of the Winton Motor Carriage Co., Cleveland, Ohio, who has been assigned to go into the Ford sales organization, has signed with the F. C. Stevens Co. whereby he becomes their general sales and advertising manager.

Mr. Shanks will retain his retail business in Cleveland where he handles the Stevens & Chalmers Detroit in connection with his new assignment.

Mr. Shanks will be in the Pacific Coast within the next thirty days, in the interest of the F. C. Stevens Co.

NIGHTIES A LUXURY, CRIES CRUEL JUDGE IN INDIANA

In Hot Weather, Even With Skeeters Around, Garment Not Necessary.

LAPORTE, Indiana.—A nightgown may denote luxury, but it is not a necessity, according to Judge Tutfill, of the LaPorte County Superior Court. A few weeks ago a girl of sixteen, whose parents are foreign born, was taken before the judge. She was the oldest of nine children, and was inclined to慷慨地 give up her home. She was the only child dependent upon him for support. He could not support his daughter in idleness, he said, and wanted her placed where she would be well cared for.

FOUND HER WORK.

The Court concluded that the girl ought to have a chance to aid her parents, and grow up in good and useful womanhood, without the stigma of having been incarcerated in a penal institution, so he turned her over to a probation officer, who found employment for her in the home of a prominent family. She went to work with a will and her conduct was exemplary.

But the father was not satisfied. He asked that she contribute her earnings to the support of the family. The girl, it seems, developed a taste for luxury, and at the end of the first week spent $1.65 for a new dress, giving the remaining 68 cents to her parents. This was too much for the old gentleman, and he laid down an iron-clad rule that henceforth she bring home every cent of her wages and allow her mother to select and make purchases of her clothing.

"HIFALUTIN' NOTIONS."

Another day loomed near and the father learned that his daughter, as the result of associating with people accustomed to much luxuries, contemplated buying a night dress. In consequence of the proposed extravagance he appealed to the Court to put a check on the young woman's "hifalutin' notions."

The maid pleaded guilty to the charge of coveting a night dress, but after the father had related the many needs of the family more pressing, Judge Tutfill decided the article might be forgone, especially in extremely warm weather.

Therefore, provided she obeys the Court's ruling, the girl will have to content to wrap herself in a sheet or take chances on mosquitoes.

"WE MUST HAVE 'EM."

NEW YORK.—A half dozen well-known women were asked to discuss Judge Tutfill and his ruling on nightgowns, but the only one who could be coaxed to say a word was Miss Mary Coleman, the lawyer and Suffragette. "The lamentable case of the learned Judge," said Miss Coleman, "shows the vital necessity of having a few women on the bench."

"I have never had the pleasure of meeting Judge Tutfill but I think I could find him in a crowd by looking for a man with an incoming chest, shoulders about eight inches from tip to tip, and a forehead that leaned back at an angle of forty-five degrees more or less. I could be sure of my man upon seeing his head."

NECESSITY OF GOWNS.

"But quite apart from Judge Tutfill, I think I voice the opinion of all women when I say that whether a nightgown is a necessity or not depends,

"On what?" ventured the inquisitor.

"The weather for one thing," replied Miss Coleman. "Consider the banishment of night gowns as universal and then suppose a restless sleeper, and then suppose—"

"What?"

"A bad cold almost certainly, and then the shock to the nerves of a carelessly brought up young burglar. If such a one were to break in, or just think, in case of fire, if a restless young fireman's chief were to send him to that!

"No, all in all it seems to me that a woman's nightgown is not only a necessity but an essential. Of course one might think of dispensing with one in the case of a woman marooned upon a desert island, but one should also aspire to stop thinking right there."

HAVE DISCARDED GOWNS.

PITTSBURG.—The decision of the Indiana Judge that nightgowns for women are a luxury will not offend Pittsburghers in the least. It is asserted by several large dealers in women's wear that Pittsburgh women do not mind wearing nightgowns. Several of the dealers said Pittsburgh women buy fewer night gowns in proportion to population than in any other city in the country. No, do the ladies wear pajamas as a general thing.

"Then what do they wear?" was asked, the leading ladies' furnishers of one of the principal streets.

"I'm sure I don't know what the reply,

WOMAN IS ONE OF THE MOST REMARKABLE OF STATISTICIANS

The Reports of Miss Katherine May Giles Rival Those of the Government Itself.

Here is another proof that the blind has become so keen in her judgment that her reports rival those of the government itself.

Her statistical work attracted the attention of the government first during the recent famous cotton campaign. The department wired to New York: "Who's Giles?" It was hinted that there had been a leak from government figures, but her thorough system of intelligence proved that hers was a more perfect plan than that of the government, which had to rely a good deal on guess work.

She first came into the national limelight during 1902, when the Sully campaign on the cotton market was in full swing. Mr. Sully was on the bull side and a Mr. Bustin of Liverpool had given out estimates of the American cotton crop that were, to his belief, too high, the figures being 11,200,000, which tended to materially aid the bears. Three days after the publication of these figures Mr. Sully went to Miss Giles' office and secured her figures, which showed a total of 10,300,000 bales. This, of course, Mr. Sully quickly took advantage of and had the figures sent broadcast. Prices soared, and the denouement of over 200 in the cotton left, to whom she sent statis- postal cards to be filled in and returned to her. From these statistics she issues reports twice a month during the cotton season. It takes a deal of close application and labor to keep in shape all this mass of information, coming from so many different sources, and in such of doubtful accuracy, and to obtain from it a correct estimate of the cotton situation. She is growing up, a pretty blonde girl in Salsbury, Orange County, N. J.

Five years ago she secured a minor clerical position in a cereal brokerage house, and from simple copying and blank filling, she gradually advanced until she was given the letter box key, which seemed to her to be the limit of success, beyond which her young fancy had no dreams of attaining. But she had more in her than that, and she was gradually initiated into the mysteries of collecting and manipulating crop statistics into digested reports. Then suddenly her employer died and she determined to branch out for herself. She soon had a correspondence clientele of over 200 in the cotton left, to whom she sent statis- postal cards to be filled in and returned to her. From these statistics she issues reports twice a month during the cotton season. It takes a deal of close application and labor to keep in shape all this mass of information, coming from so many different sources, and in such of doubtful accuracy, and to obtain from it a correct estimate of the cotton situation. She is growing up, a pretty blonde girl in Salsbury, Orange County, N. J.

ACTRESS OFFERS $5,000 FOR REDUCTION OF HER HEIGHT

Nature has disengaged Miss Lillian Lee, a member of the "Follies of 1905," four inches," asserts Miss Lee. "It would make a difference of $100 per week in my salary, to say nothing of the position I would attain in the dramatic world. I am too tall for serious dramatic parts, and managers do not engage me because I am funny, but because I look funny. I would gladly give up my life's savings, $100,000, if I could take off three or four inches. It looks as though it will be necessary for me to give up my stage career at the expiration of my contract with Manager Ziegfeld of the "Follies of 1905."

TROUSERS SKIRT IS THE LATEST FREAK OF FASHION TO RIVAL THE DIRECTOIRE GOWN

And now the directoire gown is to be a back number. Fashions, which run to the extreme, and which are a trifle chic seem to advance during daylight and dark.

THE TRIBUNE presents for the readers of the women's page today the latest Parisian novelty in dress, the jupe-culotte.

In English this means the "trouser skirt."

To wear this costume there is no rigid requirement of pink silk tights and a slashed skirt. It can be worn by the lean or the fat, the short or the long, the dumpy or the thin, for the reason there is nothing to display which requires padding or massage.

Schools for Deaconesses

The Presbytery of Philadelphia about a year ago established a school for deaconesses and now Chicago has established such a school. It has been for a long time a question should be educated for church work, the Presbyterian and other churches coming to the same conclusion. The deaconesses are new to the Presbyterian church in this country, but not abroad.

Wife Asks Divorce After One Day

Mrs. Annie Ferguson, who was married to James O. Ferguson of Brooklyn, seven years ago, but lived with him only one day, has sued for divorce.

Mrs. Ferguson, a daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Shawcross of Bloomfield, N. J., as she was married to Ferguson at the house of a Methodist minister in Brooklyn after a brief acquaintance. They lived one day at 215 Broadway, Brooklyn. Then he left her and she returned to her mother in Brooklyn. A few days later he called and informed Ferguson he was going to Philadelphia to get work. The next she heard of him was in Brooklyn. A member of the family went there and took him to Bloomfield for a conference at which Mrs. Ferguson declares, he absolutely refused to provide for her, saying, "I have no home for myself and don't intend to provide one for you."

Her brother-in-law, she says, kicked him out of the house and she has not seen him since.

BUTTONLESS TROUSERS, FORM HIS PLEA TO BE DIVORCED

DES MOINES, Iowa.—Brenton, Mayor of Des Moines from 1901, and before that county superintendent of schools and prominent in church work, has begun suit for divorce against his wife, charging that she has refused to sew buttons on his trousers and that she has not prepared a meal fit for him to eat for several years.

He further alleges that after being defeated for third term as Mayor when his financial condition grew he wanted to keep a boarding-house, but his wife refused to take in boarders and that he was obliged to rent another house and hire a housekeeper to take care of his boarders.

Mrs. Brenton, it is said, will file a cross-petition, in which this boarding-house and housekeeper will be prominently mentioned. Since being defeated for Mayor Brenton has conducted a saloon, appeared on the wrestling mat and is present in the employ of the park board.

Woman's Heel a Precious as Any Other Part of Her Foot

NEW YORK.—Richard Whalen, 34 years old, a driver of No. 538 West Fifteenth street, was a prisoner in the Night Court last night charged with reckless driving and having endangered the life of a pedestrian.

He had been arrested by Patrolman Barnes, of the Traffic Squad, at Broadway and Twenty-eighth street, or complainant of William Rebek, of No. 11 West Twenty-eighth street, who told his wife and child were about to board a northbound Broadway car. Whalen drove his horse and wagon so near the car that one of the wheels passed over Mrs. Rebek's right heel.

He had been able to get Mrs. Rebek to their home as they lived near y, he said, but his wife's foot had been severely bruised. Magistrate arris found found that the wagon should have been near the curb on the right side of the street instead of so close to the car, and he fined Whalen $3. The magistrate said that the case showed the necessity of traffic regulations and the good accomplished by them.

HENRY AGAIN ASKED ABOUT $30,000 FEE

Newburgh Still Unable to Unravel the Mystery That Hangs Over It.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—"In regard to this affair of the fee, remember that I am not a political boss," Henry to Newburgh.

"But you'd like to be," Newburgh.

That was the only result of the attempted inquiry by Attorney Newburgh before Judge Cabaniss yesterday in the mystery of the $30,000 fee received by Francis J. Henry from the Contra Costa Water Company.

When Henry took the stand in the proceeding to test the testimony of "Big Jim" Gallagher and other former supervisors, which has been dragging along before Judge Cabaniss these many days, Attorney Newburgh, counsel for Abe Ruef, betrayed his anxiety to solve the fee mystery.

"The question has been raised here," Newburgh stated, "that Mr. Ruef's fee of $30,000 in the Parkside case was excessive. If certain legal services are worth $30,000 then perhaps other legal services are worth the same amount."

$30,000 FEE UNEXPLAINED

"Now, Mr. Henry, did you receive a fee of $30,000 from the Contra Costa Water Company?"

Assistant District Attorney Ward was quickly to the rescue of his chief with the objection that the question was irrelevant and immaterial. Judge Cabaniss sustained the objection and Newburgh noted his exception.

Then Newburgh went at the mystery in another way.

"State what services you rendered for that fee," he asked pointedly.

More objections, which were sustained.

"Were you attorney for the Contra Costa Water Company at certain times, for which you received fees?" Newburgh then asked.

Then another aside than the statement of Attorney Newburgh as to the reason for the questions and the remarks of Henry followed by Newburgh's robust Langdon on the stand.

District Attorney Langdon also took the stand at Newburgh's request and replied to questions as to the date of the immunity contract given the supervisors. Gallagher and Furey testified that they had signed the contract on the evening of July 24, before resigning. The contract bears the date of July 30. "Somebody's lying," Newburgh stated, "and it's Henry and Spangler against Furey and Gallagher. The fact is, that there were two immunity contracts."

MONTEREY PLANS BIG CELEBRATION

Native Sons and Daughters to Be Welcomed on Admission Day.

MONTEREY, Aug. 18.—This old historic town will soon be the scene of jubilation and mirth. On September 8 and 9 the Native Sons and Daughters of California will gather here to celebrate the admission of the Golden State into the Union.

No more fitting place could have been chosen to hold a celebration of this kind than Monterey. For it was here that on July 4, 1846, over the old custom house, that the American flag was first unfurled to the breeze over California soil. It was here also that the first Constitutional Convention met, September 1, 1849, for the purpose of framing a constitution for this State.

EXPECT BIG CROWD.

Everything points to the largest crowd that ever attended a celebration of this kind.

The Monterey Natives have been working hard for two months in order to make the event a success. The executive committee in charge of the work is as follows: George S. Gould Jr., chairman, W. T. Read, secretary; Francis Hill, treasurer; Grant Towle, William Sandholz Jr., Cornel Martin, Sol Charnak, William Beegschlecker, Bruce W. Farno, W. E. Parker, Ross Sargent and Dr. McAuley.

The program, as so far arranged, calls for band concerts and receptions on the 8th, as the visitors arrive. The big parade will occupy the forenoon of the 8th, while the afternoon will be devoted to band concerts, literary exercises at Colton Hall (the first capitol) and aquatic sports. In the evening all the parlors will give dances in their headquarters and a grand ball will be given by Monterey Parlor at Hotel del Monte.

RELEASED FROM PRISON; TO TAKE BRIDE AT ONCE

Kaiser Pardons Man Who Robbed Officials.

BERLIN, Aug. 18.—William Voight, the celebrated "Captain Koepenick," was released Sunday from the royal prison at Tegel, near Berlin, where he had been confined for twenty months for his exploit in robbing the municipal authorities of Koepenick and robbing them of several thousand dollars. He still has twenty-eight months to serve, but was paroled by the Kaiser. The order for his release reached the Ministry of Justice Sunday morning and was at once telephoned to the prison.

Voight could not eat his dinner for joy. He left the prison penniless, having only a few coins in his pockets, as no payments are made on Sunday. He recognized the conductor of the car that took him to the home of his future bride in the suburb of Rixdorf. He will soon marry and open some business, his admirers having collected enough capital for him to make a start. With Frau Wertheim, a wealthy Jewish woman, he has settled an annuity of $100 on him.

"A Faithful Friend." "I have a good friend, Chamberlain's Colle, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which was first introduced to the public in 1872, and have never found one instance where its cure was not speedily effected by its use. I have used it myself, and traveled for eighteen years, and never start out on a trip without this, my faithful friend." says H. S. Nichols of Oakland, Calif. "For when man has used a remedy, he always remembers it, and is competent to speak of it."

SMALL BOYS' PLAY ENDANGERS TRAIN

Place Bar on Track and Crowded Special Is Imperiled.

SANTA ROSA, Aug. 18.—Henry Fehrer, aged eleven, and Austin Davis, aged ten, are in the county jail for attempting train wrecking by placing a bar of iron across the track on a dangerous curve on the Northwestern Pacific railroad yesterday morning and for hurling rocks through the windows of the passing train.

They put a piece of rail across the track. While rounding the curve the engineer saw the obstruction. It was the Camp Vacaville special from San Francisco, with many passengers. He applied the brakes, but did not prevent the engine striking the iron, which was thrown aside without derailing the train.

PLACE BAR ON TRACKS.

After placing the obstruction on the track the youths walked down the right of way to await the coming of the train. They blackened their faces with crayon.

One rock struck Mrs. T. J. Roche of 1611 Walter street, San Francisco, in the face and caused lacerations. H. A. George, another passenger, was cut in the face by the sharp edge of a glass. A. J. Regan, of the Peninsula, and A. J. Regan, of the Attorney's office, took their statement. Both said that they put the obstruction on the track for fun. They say they had no idea of the peril in which they were putting the passengers. The older boy will probably be sent to the reform school.

Markette, Mr. James P. Keene's chamberlain, filed with the $1,000,000 New York Stock Exchange at Sandown in the Hill. Mr. Keene desired to show in the fifty ring at the Kentucky Bluegrass Fair in 1906, but was sold out of the ring by the veterans for better prices in the future, according to their view. Major Daingerfield contended at the time she was not sound as a dollar and had never been sound for a minute.

Markette, Mr. James P. Keene's chamberlain, filed with the $1,000,000 New York Stock Exchange at Sandown in the Hill.

"State what services you rendered for that fee," he asked pointedly.

More objections, which were sustained.

"Were you attorney for the Contra Costa Water Company at certain times, for which you received fees?" Newburgh then asked.

Then another aside than the statement of Attorney Newburgh as to the reason for the questions and the remarks of Henry followed by Newburgh's robust Langdon on the stand.

District Attorney Langdon also took the stand at Newburgh's request and replied to questions as to the date of the immunity contract given the supervisors. Gallagher and Furey testified that they had signed the contract on the evening of July 24, before resigning. The contract bears the date of July 30.

"Somebody's lying," Newburgh stated, "and it's Henry and Spangler against Furey and Gallagher. The fact is, that there were two immunity contracts."

JOE THOMAS

WILL AGAIN
TRY TO WIN

REFeree EDDIE SMITH

JOE THOMAS

CONTESTANTS FOR TONIGHT'S BATTLE ARE IN PERFECT PHYSICAL CONDITION

Thomas for the Fourth Time Will Try to Win From the Man Who Has Defeated Him Twice and Proved a Surprise at Marysville.

BY EDDIE SMITH.

"When I step into the center of the ring at the clang of the bell for the opening of the contest with Ketchel, I do not want a handshaking. We are there for business and he is not going to catch me off my guard and knock me down as he did the last time. Well, I have no ill feelings toward Ketchel and will shake hands heartily with him prior to the opening and if he tries to catch me just as much as his friend is, you I could, but when the bell sounds I am there for business and not to show off."

Instead, Ketchel will demand that Ketchel go into the ring, and I will not encircle with coconut oil as I did with both men and from then on let the best man win."

When the writer told Ketchel yesterday that Thomas would not allow him to fight covered with oil, the Marylander smiled and replied: "Just let that I shall not let him all the quick."

These were the last words spoken to the writer at the camp of the fighters and those that Ketchel is not afraid of when he is in the ring, and when Thomas was more confident in his strength he is not going to allow anything slip by that may help him to win from his rival of three fights.

Regarding the shaking hands after the bell has rung, there is no doubt but that it is a needless thing to do, and also it is unnecessary. Many a boxer has been beaten before he has regained his position after the shaking of hands and especially with a quick time like Ketchel it is otherwise.

There is an old saying among many拳谚 in boxing and in other sports that "you go something after this." It is mighty big bold to start on a fight of this evidently meaning the rules are start better and work better when on a wounded up.

Thomas is not the quick starter that Ketchel is and he is no doubt aware of the fact that Michigan is a big boxer, starting with a solid collar and for that reason he intends to get well warmed up and ready for the fight before he lets himself out.

The visit to the training quarters of the two men Thomas on Sunday and Ketchel on Monday, when he steps into the ring the referee to the effect that he will be in with two of the most perfectly fit fighters that it has been 119 fighters in the past.

THOMAS WELL CONDITIONED

Thomas has been preparing for the past six months, taking off about four months and he has not lost a single ounce in weight, and in fact it is coming off steadily, and that is the secret of his success.

Frank McDonald who in 1906 was the 10th at the Illinois snap

as he is well set in with the condition of his fighter and fully satisfied him to win. McDonald has been more successful in the training of Thomas than in the case of Ketchel.

Thomas is owing to the fact that he will not listen to the words of wisdom when he is in the ring.

When the writer told Ketchel yesterday that Thomas would not allow him to fight covered with oil, the Marylander smiled and replied: "Just let that I shall not let him all the quick."

The betting is at the price that was expected by all who know the ways of the people of San Francisco and the man of their picking favorite that the price has little to do with it, and in fact as it is the fighters in the past have been proven over and over again that the price of the game is little or nothing to it when it comes to determining the result that they are of the opinion will be to the best of their knowledge.

TOO MANY PRAY ONLY WITH LIPS, NOT HEARTS, HE SAYS

RABBI ADDRESSES LARGE GATHERING

Carmel-Zion Society Meets and Hears Several Interesting Speeches.

The Carmel Zion society met last night in the auditorium of the Beth Jacob Congregation, Ninth and Castro streets. A large delegation of representative Jews of San Francisco and Oakland was present.

The Rev. Dr. Benjamin Meyerowitz, rabbi of Beth Jacob Congregation presided. The Rev. Dr. Bernard Kaplan of San Francisco delivered an address on "Historical and Spiritual Zionism." He said in part:

"The world does not know the Jew. The world does not know his ideal home life, his pure morality, and his practical charity. The world would have ample reason to admire the Jew had it really known him. I am inclined to think that the Jews could be a greater power for good if they were united as one nation. There is no telling what a power the Jews might have wielded in the ethical, political and religious world if they had a government of their own.

UNITED BY HOPE.

"During the middle ages our brethren though scattered far and wide, were united by their hope in Zion, much as they are today. In one God. Whenever they scattered, they turned their hearts and their minds towards the East, in prayer. We, too, turn our faces toward the East, in supplication, but I fear that not many of us incline our hearts and minds in that direction. Some of us say our prayers as mechanically as the organ-grinder turns out his airs. There is no sincerity of devotion in such prayers as there is no musical skill or emotion in the organ-grinder's music. Some pray, 'Lord, have thy way and let our eyes behold thy return in mercy to Zion,' and yet they are inconsistent enough to declare that they do not believe in Zionism. From now on, when you recite that prayer, I ask you, kindly to make up your minds whether you are Zionists or not. If you are not, leave out that prayer and the many other prayers, in which Zion is mentioned; for why should you pray with your lips for that which your hearts do not desire?"

ROOM FOR DIFFERENCES.

"Now there may be room for honest difference of opinion regarding Zionism, but, certainly, who can gainsay the fact that the majority of Judaism in the United States in in our words as well as in our deeds."

"The assimilation of Palestine as a Jewish national center will not only afford a home to the homeless, and the persecuted Jews, but will also give a spiritual and religious impetus to the prosperous but indifferent Jews of the west, who are drifting from the best traditions of Judaism."

"The rehabilitation of the Jews in Palestine would also be a benefit to the world at large. The Jews would establish an ideal form of government, their own morality and religion go hand in hand. The Jews, in ancient times, enjoyed the most democratic and the most ideal form of government, which, in our days, is the beautiful dream of realistic social economists."

TO ACQUIRE HILY LAND.

The Rev. Dr. Rudolph Coffey of Pittsburgh, spoke in part as follows:

"The idea of Zionism is the idea of earnest Jews to acquire possession of the Holy Land. You know that during the centuries the people of Israel have been scattered to every quarter and corner of the globe. No place has gladly received them. And when they have been persecuted, it has been tolerated or persecuted. It is now time to call a halt. Instead of doing this, we are scattering our forces in every direction, giving up our hold on the Holy Land, preparing to succeed in the same, more or less, of old, we are free from that state in which they are now solely oppressed. The very freedom we enjoy should not be the last to join such a movement. We are not persecuted, and therefore should be content. But because we are free is no reason to forget our brethren who are in other lands."

"It must be cause for unpleasant reflection to consider that the Holy Land is so dear to us that we are unwilling to let uncleaned people as the Turk. To do the rapid advances of science and tearing away the false foundations of religion, we are scattering the Jews, more and more, as of old, to be free from that state in which they are now solely oppressed. The very freedom we enjoy should not be the last to join such a movement. We are not persecuted, and therefore should be content. But because we are free is no reason to forget our brethren who are in other lands."

HOW TO GAIN LAND.

"You have gained possession of this territory. This is easier than appears on the surface, because of the unsettled condition of Turkey. A converted demand by the power of Europe will easily force Turkey to turn over. This would be comparatively easy since the present unsettled condition of his country makes it very necessary for Turkey to have a place to go to. The various countries of Europe, when established, the Jewish nation would be a light unto the world, advancing the morality of the entire world in religion."

The Rev. Dr. Meyerowitz delivered a brief address. Miss Jennie Buchanan sang a number of vocal selections, accompanied by the piano. She was received with a solo, Miss Mollie Kletz, assisted in receiving the visitors.

REGULARS ARE IN FULL CONTROL

Some Lively Fights Expected in Los Angeles County Over the Nominations on Republican Ticket.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 18.—With the "regular" organization in complete control of the county convention, the nomination of Los Angeles county convened at 10 o'clock this morning in Shrine Auditorium on Jefferson street for the nomination of legislative, judicial and supervisorial candidates.

Of the 883 delegates in the convention the Lincoln-Roosevelt faction of the party controlled a few in excess of 300, the remainder being representatives of the so-called "Trot-Roosevelt" organization, which is the "regular" organization.

Candidates are to be placed in nomination as follows: Nine members of the Assembly, two State senators, four superior court judges and three supervisors.

REGULARS TO DICTATE.

The "regulars" will dictate all nominations except in the 67th Assembly District or Pasadena district, where H. G. Cattell will be named by the Lincoln-Roosevelt organization. Cattell having carried the recent primaries against his "regular" opponent. Although the majority of the multi convention is overjoyed at the result of the recent nomination, it was expected that some lively warm fights would develop in some of the district conventions where the vote is closer.

CONTROL SAN DIEGO.

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 18.—The regular organization repudiated by the central committee, which had taken the name of Tatt Republicans as opposed to the Lincoln-Roosevelt League, has complete control of the county convention, organizing it by the election of Philip Morse as chairman by a vote of 18 to 127. The regulars will dictate all nominations with the possible exception of the Eighth Assembly district, where the vote is close and friendship may swing enough votes one way or the other.

INSURANCE MEN IN SESSION

Will Likely Try to Put State Association on Record Against the Insurance Tax Law of State.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 18.—The nineteenth annual meeting of the National Association of Life Insurance Underwriters convened this morning in Fernal Hall at Temple Auditorium. Delegates are here from all parts of the country, a special train arriving from the east last night, bearing a large number and being escorted here from Grand Canyon by a reception committee of the city which journeyed there to meet them. Mayor Harlan officially welcomed the delegates to the city this morning with a beautiful address.

REPORTS OF OFFICERS.

The forenoon session was occupied with reports of officers. Several matters of large importance in the insurance world will come before the convention. One of these is the revision of the constitution of the association as to prohibit certain insurance companies accused of violating the rules of the association from operating under its laws. An attempt will likely be made also to place the association on record against the California Insurance Tax Law, enacted two years ago, and to secure its repeal.

TO ATTACK WOLFE.

It is claimed that as a result of the law, policy holders in the state are compelled to pay into the state treasury $150,000 annually without justification of such taxation. It is expected in some quarters that a vigorous attack will be made upon Dr. Myron Wolfe, California State Insurance Commissioner, because of certain features of his administration.

Our greatest concern for the advancement of our human living is the recognition of virtues and values in other people.

BIG ERROR TO ELECT BRYAN

So Says Congressman, and Points Out What Democrat Would Do With Powers Delegated to Him.

NEW SALEM, Ill., Aug. 18.—Congressman James Francis Burke of Pittsburg delivered an address at a "Republican Day" celebration here yesterday on "The Powers of the President."

He said in part:

"The American people can make no greater mistake than to elect Mr. Bryan on the assumption that he can do no harm in the face of an adverse Senate. As between the legislative and executive departments of the government, the latter has infinitely greater power to rule and ruin than the former."

"Mr. Taft and Mr. Bryan are wholly different types of men. Each possesses a strong character, which would certainly assert itself in the White House. Mr. Taft has proven it in the service, in the Philippines, in Cuba, in Panama, and in the general counsels of the cabinet, and in a manner reflecting honor on his memory."

WONDERFUL PERSISTENCY.

"Mr. Bryan has proven it in the possession of a political and partisan persistence, rarely, if ever, equalled in history."

"What either of these men would do during a four years' term in the White House is causing much anxiety among thoughtful Americans."

"One President established a protectorate and raised the flag over Ili-

"Another withdrew the papers from the Senate, pulled down the flag and withdrew the military forces whose protection his predecessor had guaranteed to an island which is now American territory, and on which we are now establishing the greatest naval base in the world."

"What Mr. Bryan would do with the Philippines under similar circumstances is difficult to determine."

POWER FAR REACHING.

"The President's power exercised through the trade in the interpretation and enforcement of customs laws is far reaching. He is the world's greatest banker. With two hundred millions at his disposal he can distribute these vast sums throughout the country in the encouragement of industries or if his prejudices against national banks be great, he may lock it up in the vaults at Washington or he may center it in New York or San Francisco. He may harass interstate commerce by a system of espionage which no concern, whether guilty or innocent, can survive. He can institute proceedings on suspicion and prejudice alone, or he may wilfully overlook violations of law on the part of favorites."

STREETS

Councilman Ellsworth Asks for Engineer to Take Care of Thoroughfares.

Olivier Ellsworth, President of the City Council, last night introduced a resolution which was referred to the Board of Works providing for the appointing by the board of an engineer skilled in the care, maintenance and construction of streets to have complete control and charge of the streets in the city at a salary not to exceed $100 per month. The resolution provides that the engineer shall be appointed in the place of some one of the deputies now holding office in the street department.

It is explained by Councilman Ellsworth that the resolution is not introduced for the purpose of criticizing any of the present officials, but is introduced for the benefit of the city, the appointment of a skilled street engineer being in line with the policy of the city officials and in accordance with the findings of the Grand Jury which recently looked into the street conditions in this city.

At the request of Councilman Ellsworth, the resolution was referred to the Board of Works with power to act and will come up before that body at a meeting tomorrow evening. Just what action will be taken along the lines suggested in the resolution, remains to be seen.

YOUNG GIRL IS ACCUSED OF THEFT

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—Hazel Raphael, a sixteen-year-old girl, was taken into custody by detective Graham and Fitzgerald late last night on complaint of B. Aaron of 1927 Broadway, who alleges that the young woman stole silver watch belonging to his wife. The girl has been employed as a servant in the Aaron household, and it is said that trinkets of small value have been systematically disappearing. The police were notified and their investigations lead to her arrest.

NEW YORK LAWYER IS ROBBED

Falls Into Hands of Desperate Thugs, Who Crack Him Over the Head and Get $200.

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—M. E. McTyghe, a young lawyer who arrived in this city yesterday from New York, fell into the clutches of a trio of desperadoes while he was searching for his lodgings at an early hour this morning. He was beaten severely and robbed of $200 in cash before he realized that he had made a mistake in his companions.

The young man says he was standing on a street corner, he believes in the western addition, when he was approached by a young man, who, after a few words conversation, invited him to take a walk. After they had gone several blocks they met two other men and all four entered a saloon and had several drinks.

McTyghe is not sure, but he believes his liquor was drugged. At any rate, he remembers receiving a stunning blow on the head and the men proceeded to go through his pockets.

He was picked up by Officer J. R. Welsh and taken to the Central Emergency Hospital, where he was treated for a badly lacerated wound on the scalp.

He says he had $200 on his person and that, together with a silver watch, was taken by the robbers.
